Salary: £21,392 FTE (£5,024 pro rata) - £11.39 per hour

The Midday Supervisor will:

- Supervise and assist the children in the dining hall, providing practical help, promoting good manners, and encouraging them to eat well.
- Promote and support good behaviour, including intervening where necessary for the safety of the children.
- Assist in the smooth running of the hall during the lunch service, including wiping tables, dealing with spills and taking dirty plates and trays to the kitchen when needed.
- Clean and fold the tables following lunch session.
- Sweep the floors and clean ledges as required.

The successful candidate will:

- Have a cheerful and friendly manner and the ability to build rapport with pupils.
- Have good verbal communication skills to enable effective communication with the children.
- Be able to work well within a team.
- Be empathetic to the needs of all the children.

We can offer you:

- Generous pension scheme (Local Government Pension Scheme)
- Family friendly employer – Term time working.
- Employee assistance programme.
- Gym discount
- Free car parking.
